Re Bureau teletype to San Francisco, 4/22/81;
 San Francisco teletype to Bureau, 4/24/81.

Enclosed to the Bureau are five copies of an LHM captioned Mae Magnin Brussell. Enclosed to WFO are two copies of LHM, original and 9 copies of FD-302, and original of interview notes of Mae Magnin Brussell.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

Mae Brussell is the subject of San Francisco files 9-2954 (victim), and 100-56470. Information contained in these files has been capsulized and made a part of enclosed LHM.

For information of Bureau and WFO, Mae Magnin Brussell is known to the Monterey Resident Agency as being somewhat of a character who is totally convinced of a conspiracy which has been involved in all assassinations which have achieved national notoriety. She attributes this conspiracy to Nazis who came to the United States from Germany after World War II and who have been involved in this assassination and terrorist activity since then. She also attributes the conspiracy to being perpetrated by the FBI and CIA. Mrs. Brussell is not taken seriously by the local
